

Good morning Patricia; it is 2 a.m. & the ole sleeping pill is rushin round my brain. As well as I can remember, I typed the sid piece on mental patients & the law; (a longy) the correction corrected; your anonymous piece by someone unknown to me; stan's piece on the EEC and Bonham, which is not on your list; this place called riverview by bonnie ramsay; and the activities calendar (but not the report). If I don't see you in the morning (I'm going to the Residence Council meeting), some things to remember to take to MPA are: the MPA typewriter the Adjutant ball and the courier italics ball; the opaquing crap, the stack of white paper on this desk and of course all of the nutshell materials. It's a good idea to try and get Coull to proof read all the stuff. Also make sure he gets the materials & supplies at Behnsens. Oh yes, I also typed the masthead, the page numbers, the intro to the sid piece and an announcement about the research paper (Stan and mine) being available, and the sublogos. I'll get to layout as soon as I can after the res. council mtg. I've left a note for stan to be sure to be there at 12:30. Also, I have done my laundry, had bacon & eggs for supper and counted all my fingers and toes (which are all there). See yez at layout.

Compulsively yrs with love,
Lanny
